Judge Gives Him Parole For Hearing

McClellan Declares He Can Invoke 5th, 'Public Can Judge'

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Labor racketeer Johnny Dio is coming out of jail long enough to face questioning by senators on charges that he had a big hand in victimizing many New York workers.

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark.) of the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee said Dio will be placed on the witness stand Thursday or Friday.

McClellan said Dio can invoke the Fifth Amendment if he chooses, but that in any event "the public can judge" the racketeer on the witness stand.

Charge Link To Hoffa
The committee is exploring charges that Dio and Teamsters Union boss James R. Hoffa formed a corrupt alliance that ultimately could subject more than a million New York workers to "crooked" labor contracts and "economic slavery," chaining them to less than decent wages.

That was the testimony yesterday of John McNiff, executive secretary of the Assn. of Catholic Trade Unionists. McNiff spoke of "collusion between crooked management and crooked unionism."

McClellan has told the committee Dio and his New York underworld henchmen have "fattened their pockets" by extorting from employers and dipping deeply into the funds of union members for whom they negotiated union contracts that allegedly provided few, if any benefits.

McClellan says the evidence will show that Hoffa helped Dio to get charters for Teamster locals and that through this alleged alliance, Hoffa sought a "stranglehold" over New York and the Eastern Seaboard.

As the committee was listening to charges of labor exploitation, a New York judge ordered Dio and three other convicted labor racketeers paroled just long enough to testify in the hearings.

Two Others Paroled

Paroles also went to Samuel Goldstein, president of Teamsters Local 239 and Max Chester, former financial secretary of Local 405 of the Retail Clerks Union. Both were convicted with Dio of a $30,000 shakedown conspiracy against two New York electroplating firms. The three are being held without bail pending sentence.

Dio also is under indictment in the acid blinding of labor columnist Victor Riesel.

Teamsters Challenge Big Labor Federation

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Teamsters Union, apparently threatening to lead building trades unions out of the AFL-CIO, has endorsed a Detroit labor group's position challenging the big labor federation.

The Teamsters' action was regarded as an early step by James (Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

Soap Firm Head Boomed For Job

WASHINGTON (AP)—High Administration sources indicated today Neil H. McElroy, president of Procter & Gamble Co., is among those under consideration to succeed Charles E. Wilson when he resigns as secretary of defense.

Wilson, former president of General Motors, has been planning to quit for some time, but he told reporters this week no date has been set. He said, however, he had talked with President Eisenhower about possible successors.

Surgical Scissors In Body, Death Ruled As Accidental

CHICAGO (AP)—A coroner's jury has returned a verdict of "accidental" in the death of Joseph Olson, 50, in whose body a doctor found a pair of surgical scissors.

The jury ruled yesterday that Olson died July 24 from arterio-sclerotic heart disease "and a foreign body in the abdomen."

The jury failed to determine "how, when, where or under what circumstances" the foreign body got there and said any evidence concerning the forces was "hearsay."

Olson died in Woodlawn Hospital on the South Side where he had gone complaining of gas

Britain Sends Ground Units To Aid Ruler

MANAMA, Bahrain (AP)—British ground troops and armored cars today moved by sea and air into revolt-hit Muscat and Oman to aid the pro-British sultan.

Reports from London said a detachment of Scottish Highland troops already had entered the sultan's restive Arabian Peninsula domain. A foreign office spokesman said the troops were being used "in support of the sultan's forces."

Reports reaching the British capital said seasoned Cameronian troops had reached Ibbi, a fort inside Oman still loyal to the sultan. The rebels have claimed the fort, manned by British-led Trucial Oman scouts, had been surrounded.

Air Vice Marshal L. F. Sinclair, commander of British forces in the Persian Gulf, disclosed in this Persian Gulf center that a small number of British armor and foot troops would support the sultan's forces in their attempt to regain rebel-held territory.

He declined on security grounds to say when an offensive would be launched.

Sinclair said the first objective of the British will be Nizwa, believed to be the headquarters of the Imam of Oman, rebel leader, and a tough, trained group of insurgents armed with modern automatic weapons.

The Imam, who was exiled as religious leader in Oman, is trying to set up an independent sultanate.

Wife Protested Chewing Gum, So Divorce Granted

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—LeRoy Halpain was granted a divorce yesterday after he testified his wife left him last September because he smoked cigarettes and chewed gum.

Halpain, who said he formerly was a preacher in the Church of God Prophecy, told the court he quit drinking beer after his wife, Shirley, complained, and smoked only outside of the house. He admitted, however, he did chew gum while inside their home.

Wife Arrested In Mate Death

BALTIMORE (AP)—Mrs. Doris O. Melvin, 41, was charged with fatally shooting her 55-year-old husband, George, today at their tavern in Southwest Baltimore.

Police said they found Melvin lying face down behind the bar. He was pronounced dead at Franklin Square Hospital about 5:30 a.m.

Mrs. Melvin was arrested at the scene. Melvin was shot in the chest with a .32 caliber pistol, police said.

Dentist Hits Self, Drowns

NEW YORK (INS)—Police say a dentist, found dead in his bathtub, apparently committed suicide by hitting himself in the head with a hammer and slumping under the surface of the water-filled tub.

The body of Dr. Harry H. Friedman, 58, was found lying on a claw hammer in the tub. His head bore a deep bruise.

Two Persons Die As Auto, Bus Collide

BALTIMORE (AP)—Two persons were killed and 11 others suffered minor injuries in a car-bus collision on U.S. 40 east of Baltimore early today.

Dead on arrival at Johns Hopkins Hospital were 29-year-old Gerald G. Faw of Essex, described by Baltimore County police as driver of the car, and Dorothy Lamar of Baltimore, a passenger.

Police said the 11 injured passengers on the Trailways bus required no medical treatment and continued on their way in another bus. All were residents of Washington, D. C.

Officers said the bus, driven by Jerry Allen Bowie, 28, of Hyattsville, was headed north and the car south when Faw attempted a left turn in front of the bus. The car was bounced 281 feet, ending up in a service station on the left side of the road.

Red Hungary Seizes Right Wing Leaders

BUDAPEST (AP)—The arrest of 11 right wing Hungarian politicians by the Communist regime was announced today. Three of them were said to be connected with Josef Cardinal Mindszenty.

It was the second time this week that the names of jailed persons were linked with the cardinal, a refugee at the U. S. Legation here since Russia crushed the Hungarian revolt last November.

On Thursday the Interior Ministry announced it had completed investigation of a major group of "counter revolutionary priests," including the cardinal's former secretary.

The official Communist daily Nepszabadsag said some of the 11 and six others arrested will get court trials. There was no indication that a general conspiracy was charged against them.

The best known politician arrested was Hugo Payr, said to have been secretary to Archduke Joseph of Hapsburg nearly 40 years ago and later a leader in Budapest politics.

Payr was sentenced to four years in prison under the Communist regime but released in 1954. He was accused of conferring several times with the cardinal and organizing a "Hungarian freedom party" last October that the paper called Fascist.

Mentioned with Payr was Zoltan Gyula Mesko, and Attila Krompaszki who was described as a "former rightist politician."

Airliner Lands Safely, Carried NATO Leader

LONDON (AP)—An airliner carrying American Gen. Lauris Norstad made an emergency landing here today but the NATO commander and all others aboard escaped unhurt.

Norstad was flying from Goose Bay, Labrador, back to Paris in a U. S. Air Force Constellation when the big airliner developed engine trouble.

Zorin Slaps Dulles' Plan As 'Unfair'

Russian Delegate Claims Inspection Would Favor West

LONDON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles' outline of a two-part Western plan for air and ground arms inspection of the Soviet Union and most of North America and Europe has drawn a cautious first reaction from the Russians.

Dulles flew back to Washington to report to President Eisenhower after terming the Soviet reaction "not as bad as had been feared and about as good as had been hoped."

Soviet delegate Valerian Zorin told the U.N. disarmament subcommittee the plan presented yesterday by Dulles would receive careful study. But he suggested that it was unfair to Russia and favored the West.

Would Provide Inspection

Under the Western proposals, Russia and the West would exchange permission for inspectors to search on the ground and by air for warlike moves.

The first proposed area would take in all the Soviet Union, North America above the Rio Grande and Europe except for a fringe of Ireland and southern parts of Spain and Portugal, Italy, Albania, Greece and Turkey.

Or, under an alternate plan, Russia could agree to inspection of the Arctic area plus two pie-shaped segments with points at the North pole. This would include most of Europe from Ireland to Russia's Kamchatka peninsula on the other.

Several smaller variations could be accepted, Dulles said, all subject to approval of the Western nations involved.

Zorin complained that the proposals did not allow for Soviet inspection of Western bases in Japan, North Africa, the Middle East and elsewhere. Another Soviet spokesman later said the main threat to Russian security comes from bases excluded from the plan.

Termed 'Meaningless'

The spokesman said Russia considered Dulles' proposal of ways to control disarmament meaningless without cutting down on arms. Zorin told the subcommittee he was sorry there had been no discussion of "the main questions of disarmament."

"Control of disarmament only has any meaning if it is an integral part of a general program for measures of disarmament in the sphere of conventional and atomic armaments," Zorin said.

Showers Due In East Areas

By The Associated Press
Cooling winds pushed into the upper Mississippi Valley and Great Lakes today, but the weather still sizzled in the Southwest, along the Atlantic Coast and in parts of the West.

The Weather Bureau said scattered thunderstorms and showers will accompany the cooling air, spreading eastward from the Ohio Valley and lower Great Lakes into parts of the north and mid-Atlantic States.

Scattered thunderstorms also were forecast from the south Atlantic States westward to the southern plateau and Rockies and North into the central Plains and Rockies.

Felons Free Women Seized As Hostages

POINT OF THE MOUNTAIN, Utah (AP)—Fourteen frightened women were held hostage for one hour last night by a group of 18 prison inmates who seized control of the auditorium at the Utah State Prison.

But all the women, members of a novelty orchestra group known as the Kitchen Rhythmites from Price, Utah, were released unharmed.

The girls had been assured protection by other prisoners who did not take part in the flareup which briefly held taut this compound 20 miles south of Salt Lake City. On Feb. 6 all 500 inmates rioted and took control for 12 hours.

Last night's outbreak was short. It was preceded by a scuffle in the corridor near the auditorium when one guard was accosted by some prisoners. But he was rescued by another guard and the prisoners went to the auditorium for a special show.

At the end of the show, featuring the Rhythmites, about 7:10 p.m., the agitators jumped on stage, grabbed three prison personnel and took control of the auditorium.

A boy friend of one of the women and a husband of another were also with the group.

When the prisoners took over, another group armed itself with baseball bats obtained from the nearby recreation office. Deputy Warden John W. Turner said some tried to lock the main corridor to keep guards out but were unsuccessful.

Turner said he and about 15 other armed officers then entered the corridor, ordered all inmates back to their cells and advanced to the auditorium. There were 15 prisoners and the hostages inside, he said. He ordered the door opened and hostages released. They were.

Furcolo To Ask Drought Relief

BOSTON (AP)—Massachusetts Gov. Foster Furcolo planned today to ask the governors of Connecticut and Rhode Island to join with him in appealing to President Eisenhower a decision barring "disaster" funds for the three drought-stricken states.

Furcolo said he will request the President to review personally the findings that the drought situation in the three states, while distressing, is not "of sufficient severity and magnitude, and prolonged duration" to warrant them being declared major disaster areas.

Solons Hold Conference, Draft Plans

Russell Asserts He Opposes Bill, Fate Is Uncertain

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Russell (D-Ga.) called a meeting of senators from nine Southern states today to decide how much more resistance to offer to the administration's battered civil rights bill. The Senate finished its rewriting of the House-passed measure late yesterday, but final arguments on its passage were put over until next week.

"This bill is not going to work any hardship on the people of Georgia," Russell said in advance of the closed meeting in his office. But he said he was going to vote against it.

Johnson Sees Passage

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas said he hoped for a roll call vote Wednesday on final passage. He expressed hope that it would pass by "an overwhelming majority."

But the ultimate fate of the bill was clouded in uncertainty because the House either must accept the Senate changes or a compromise will have to be worked that can run the gamut of both branches.

In addition, President Eisenhower's blast at the bill, as amended by the Senate, prompted speculation about a possible veto if the measure should reach him with a jury trial provision in it.

Senate Republican Leader Knowland of California said he regards the bill as "better than nothing at all." He said he would vote for it, but he expressed hope that it would be "strengthened" by a Senate-House conference committee.

In contrast, Johnson said he believed the bill had been strengthened by the Senate and "made more acceptable" to the great majority of the nation and the Congress. He called it "a meaningful and effective civil rights bill."

The Senate stripped out of the House measure authority for the attorney general to obtain federal court injunctions to enforce civil rights generally, limiting this power to the protection of voting rights.

Amendment Blow To Ike

And, in an even more stunning blow to the administration early Friday, the Senate adopted, 51-42, an amendment providing for jury trials of any criminal contempt charges growing out of injunctions obtained by the government in voting rights cases and many other cases.

Eisenhower said yesterday that interposing "a jury trial between a federal judge and his legal orders . . . would weaken our whole judicial system."

Film Fans Crowd Court For 'Confidential' Trial

LOS ANGELES—The much-ballyhooed criminal libel case against Confidential Magazine had its premiere yesterday—complete with Hollywood stars, cameras and adoring fans.

The case got off to a slow start, however, because of legal technicalities and a courtroom mixup. When the session ended the selection of the jury had started, but apparently it will be well into next week before 12 jurors are chosen.

Eager fans jammed the courtroom and corridors to catch a glimpse of witnesses such as actors Tab Hunter, Buddy Baer and Allan Nixon, the former husband of actress Marie Wilson; Mrs. Josephine Dillon, Clark Gable's former wife, and screen extra Stella Shovel.

Defendants are Confidential, its sister publication, Whisper; Robert Harrison, publisher; Fred and Marjorie Meade, operators of Hollywood Research, Inc., Confidential's West Coast office; four other individuals and four corporations involved in the production and sales of the magazines.

When the trial started, after moving from the wrong courtroom to which it originally was assigned, only the Meades were present. Their attorney argued that only they and their firm had been legally served and were actually on trial.

The prosecution claimed—and Superior Judge Herbert V. Walker agreed—that the corporate entities of the two magazines and a printing firm were also on trial.

The prosecution says that the other individuals and corporations, outside California and resisting prosecution, will be tried if it suc-

Four Nabbed In Slaying Of Elderly Motel Owner

NORTH EAST, Md. (AP)—An elderly motel operator was shot to death near here last night and police early today arrested four persons in connection with the slaying.

Raymond Walter Freeland, 70, was killed by a bullet fired into his chest at his place along U.S. 40. Police said he also was struck on the head with a hammer.

A short time after the shooting police were able to stop a southbound automobile bearing New Jersey license plates. Its occupants, the bulletin said, were wanted for questioning about murder and armed robbery.

About two hours later investigators spotted a car answering the description on Baltimore's northeast outskirts and, after a brief chase, overtook it.

Two men and two women—all Negroes—in the car were taken into custody.

Cecil County Sheriff Nathan Kaplan said Freeland's body was found at his motel by his wife. He said she told of being aroused by another relative who had heard a car speed away from the place about 10:45 p. m.

Freeland was taken to Union Hospital at nearby Elkton, where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

Army Setup Changes Due In Maryland

FORT MEADE, Md. (AP)—The Second Army, with headquarters here, has announced a reorganization plan which could save the Army more than $619,000 a year.

The main change in the present set-up would be elimination of its separate military districts in Maryland, Delaware, Virginia, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, Kentucky and the District of Columbia.

Lt. Gen. Charles E. Hart, Second Army commander, made the details public yesterday. He said the program would be effective Aug. 12 and should be completed by June 30 of next year.

Former military districts in Ohio, Kentucky and West Virginia will be under a command at Fort Hayes, Ohio. The others will be governed out of Indianawood Gap Military Reservation, Annapolis, Pa.

Gen Hart said the change would represent a reduction of 18 per cent in manpower, making 69 persons surplus personnel.

Coal Production Rise Estimated

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bituminous production totaled 10,125,000 tons for the week ended July 27, the National Coal Assn. estimated today.

This compared with 9,090,000 tons for the corresponding period of last year and brought 1957 production to 279,916,000 tons, compared with 280,659,000 through July 28, 1956.

FRONT and CENTER!

Front and center in this little community stands the Church.

Your church may not be so centrally located but all that it stands for is front and center in your community life:

The worship of the God who made us and all that exists ...

The teaching of love and unselfishness as the highest good for all men ...

The preaching of the worth and dignity of each individual ...

The motivation for service in the community ...

The battle against evil in high places and low ...

Your community needs the Church and all that it stands for—front and center! And the Church needs you!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake (3) For the sake of his community and nation (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Murtaugh Replaces Bragan As Manager Of Pirates

Sukeforth Gets First Chance But Rejects Job

CHICAGO (INS)—Brash Bobby Bragan was fired today as manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates and general manager Joe L. Brown replaced him with coach Danny Murtaugh.

The floundering seventh-place Pirates, who have lost six games in succession, changed managers in the middle of the night when Brown confirmed a published report that Bragan would be disposed.

Bragan, who pulled some mad-cap stunts while manager of Hollywood in the Pacific Coast League, held his antics under control in the majors until Wednesday night at Milwaukee when he was kicked out of a game and then returned to the field with a cup of orange pop and offered some to the umpires who tossed him out.

That may have been the incident that Brown was waiting for although he said that Bragan was dismissed for the "general welfare" of the club.

Better Things Fall To Happen Bragan's Pirates paced the National League until mid-June last year and softly faded into seventh place, the position in which they are today. Bragan had forecast better things for the club this year but they never came true.

Murtaugh, 39, takes over control of the Pirates who currently sport a 36 won, 66 lost record. They are 25 games behind league-leading St. Louis.

It was learned that the position was first offered to fellow Pirate coach Clyde Sukeforth but that he turned it down in favor of Murtaugh.

Murtaugh was an infielder with the Philadelphia Phillies in 1941, spent part of the 1947 season with the Boston Braves and then was traded to the Pirates. In 1952 he became a manager-player for New Orleans, the Pirates' farm club in the Southern Association and three seasons later managed Charleston, W. Va., of the American Association. He returned to the Pirates as a coach in 1956.

Only Temporary A club spokesman said Murtaugh, 39, accepted the post with the "full understanding" that it was only temporary.

Brown said Bragan was dismissed for the "general welfare" of the club. He did not elaborate. Bragan told newsmen he was neither surprised nor shocked at the news and added: "When you're losing, things like that don't come as a shock or surprise... that's the way the ball bounces."

He said he believes he was fired for many reasons but that the main one was for losing ball games and that Brown felt it was time for a change of managers. Bragan said he will manage the Havana Almendarez club in the Cuban Winter League starting Oct. 1, a job he held from 1952 to 1954 when he led the team to two pennants in three years before joining the Pirates as manager in 1956.

He added that he learned of the firing in a telephone call from his wife in Pittsburgh where she had seen the report in a newspaper.

The announcement confirmed a report published in the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette last night that Bragan, in his second season as manager of the Pirates, was on the way out.

Bragan said prior to the announcement that Brown was at the game yesterday when the Pirates lost their sixth straight game, 6 to 4, this time to the Chicago Cubs, and "gave me no indication of anything in the wind... apparently, I'm getting fired even before I know about it."

Four Years In Minors Brown said he will hold a press conference later today.

Murtaugh returned to Pittsburgh as a coach in 1956 after four years in the minors during which he managed the Bucs' Southern Association farm club at New Orleans and the Charleston club in the American Association.

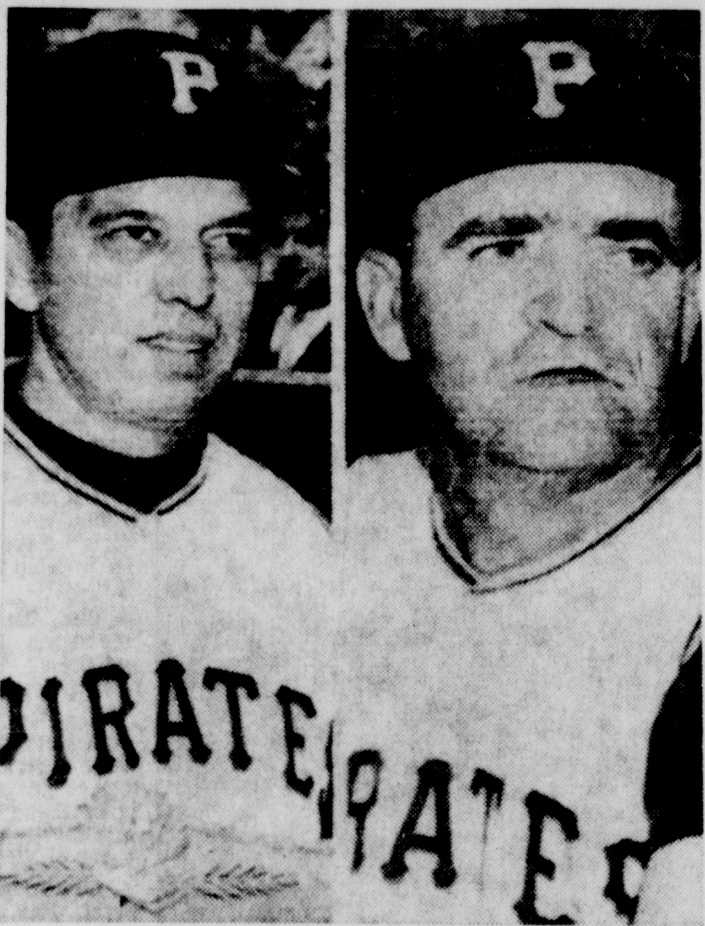

He began his professional baseball career in 1937 with Cambridge, Md., in the Eastern Shore League and played with Rochester, Columbus and Houston before breaking into the big leagues with the Philadelphia Phillies in 1941. He led the National League in stolen bases that year with 18, although playing in only 85 games. He played second base.

Yankees Again Go Over Million

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Yankees have their 21st season with a home attendance of a million or more in the ledger today, passing the standard for a successful year for the 12th consecutive campaign last night.

A crowd of 36,599 sat in on last night's 3-2 victory over the Cleveland Indians, giving the American League champs a total of 1,022,655 paying customers for 48 games on 41 dates at Yankee Stadium.

Essig Meets Towry Today In Golf Finals

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—A golfwise little guy with a perpetual scared-rabbit look and a teen-ager whose confidence may come from inexperience met today in the 36-hole final of the National Public Links Golf championship.

There was a nagging thought in the minds of Pennsylvania golf fans that little Gene Towry's steadiness may be a bit too much for young Don Essig to handle.

Essig is the 18-year-old from Indianapolis whose personality and golf skill have caught the fancy of the slim crowds following the 32nd Publix Tournament at the Hershey Park Golf Club. He's the kind of unaffected kid who has the fans wanting him to win even when they expect him to lose.

Towry, from Dallas, hardly has been noticed by the spectators. He's a wispy little man weighing about 120 pounds who wears drab clothes and seldom makes a spectacular shot. It isn't until you see the steady string of pars on his card that you realize what good golf he has been playing.

While about 200 or 300 spectators trudged around under the hot sun yesterday to see Essig score a dramatic 4 and 3 victory over Don Skrabulis, the Kewanee, Ill., boilermaker, only Towry's wife, the scorekeeper and occasionally one or two others saw Towry administer a 7 and 6 beating to Paul Popovic of San Francisco.

Birds Sell Hale To Vancouver

BALTIMORE (AP)—Bob Hale, 24-year-old first baseman, has been sold outright by the Baltimore Orioles to Vancouver of the Pacific Coast League to make room on the roster for rookie pitcher Milton Pappas.

Hale saw action in 42 games this year, 40 of them as a pinch hitter, and batted .250.

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick ordered the Orioles to reinstate Pappas to the roster. He had been placed on the disabled list for what the club called an "underdeveloped shoulder."

BALTIMORE (AP)—Bob Hale, 24-year-old first baseman, has been sold outright by the Baltimore Orioles to Vancouver of the Pacific Coast League to make room on the roster for rookie pitcher Milton Pappas.

Hale saw action in 42 games this year, 40 of them as a pinch hitter, and batted .250.

Yankees Again Go Over Million

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Yankees have their 21st season with a home attendance of a million or more in the ledger today, passing the standard for a successful year for the 12th consecutive campaign last night.

A crowd of 36,599 sat in on last night's 3-2 victory over the Cleveland Indians, giving the American League champs a total of 1,022,655 paying customers for 48 games on 41 dates at Yankee Stadium.

Player Union Recognition Pleases Colts

WESTMINSTER, Md. (AP)—Captain Bill Kellert of the Baltimore Colts says he and other members of the training camp squad were elated over recognition of the football players association.

Bill Pellington, the team's representative to the group, said yesterday "the Colts never had the problems some of the other teams had, but it's still nice to know the commissioner has recognized the players group."

NFL Commissioner Bert Bell announced recognition of the group earlier this week in an appearance before the House Antitrust Subcommittee in Washington.

Earlier yesterday, Carroll Rosenbloom, owner of the Colts, gave the players something else to be happy about. He announced they would be paid $50 for each pre-season game instead of the $15 a week formerly paid by the Colts during training camp.

With five exhibition games on this year's schedule it means that the players will receive $250 for the training period.

Giardello Bout Bobby Boyd Goal

NEW YORK (AP)—Bobby Boyd let it be known today after defeating Willie Vaughn for his fifth straight victory that he wants Joey Giardello and nobody else for his next fight.

"All I want is another shot at Giardello," said the 23-year-old Boyd after turning in his second straight split decision over Vaughn in the nationally televised fight at St. Nick's last night.

Referee Harry Kessler and Judge Arthur Aidala each saw Boyd winning 5-4-1. Judge Frank Fould had each fighter winning five rounds with the same number of points for a draw. The Associated Press scored it 5-4-1 for Boyd.

For his 45th win in 54 with seven losses and two draws, Boyd weighed 158½ pounds. The 24-year-old Vaughn from Los Angeles balanced the weights at 160. It was his 16th loss in 54 fights.

Ted Husing's Golden Voice To Ring Again

By JOE ST. AMANT

PASADENA, Calif. (INS)—Ted Husing, the golden radio voice of a golden era of sports, signed a contract today to resume the career which was disrupted by blindness, paralysis and domestic troubles.

The 55-year-old announcer whose voice brought some of the greatest sports spectacles of history into unique and colorful fashion into millions of homes before TV, said he is sending his signed contract to Columbia Broadcasting System in New York.

He himself will head for New York "very soon"—as soon as his improving eyesight allows.

He has been staying in Pasadena with his mother and his daughter but still calls New York home.

Recalled To Duty "I'm going home," he said. "I've been recalled to duty by CBS. I miss the tempo of New York City."

Then with a lilt in the voice which seems to have regained all the mellowness of which disease robbed it, he added: "I want to go back to Broadway and hear those 'cab doors slam.'"

He declined to reveal terms of the contract but said it was "a good one with a build-up clause." Husing said he doesn't know yet specifically what type program CBS has in mind for him.

Little more than three months ago, Husing was a man deep in despair. His eyesight was gone. His voice was weak and raspy. A marriage had failed and the fortune he had won with his voice and colorful interpretation of sports epics was shattered.

He had barely recovered from two operations for a brain tumor. Friends rallied to his support and doctors put him on a strict routine of exercises to rid him of the paralysis which struck with the brain tumor.

Husing wasn't able to set a definite date for his return to New York but said hopefully: "It will be very soon. The doctors are working on me beautifully. Once the eyesight returns I'll be riding high, wide and handsome."

He said he can see "a little" and will need the attention of a doctor for a long time.

His voice, he said, was "a long time in coming back" but it seems as good as ever now.

Husing has appeared in recent weeks on Tom Harmon's radio program and was also the subject of the television program "This Is Your Life" on May 8.

Celebrities who appeared to wish him well and to recall his broadcasts of their exploits included tennis queen Alice Marble, Olympic track and field champion Jesse Owens, baseball's famed catcher, Mickey Cochrane, and West Point's pair of All-American ball-carriers, Glenn Davis and Doc Blanchard.

By FRANK ECK AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor Karol Fageros has won tennis tournaments on and off for the past seven years but it took shorts and a Grecian-style creation at Wimbledon to get her in the public eye.

The 23-year-old New York native who makes Miami her home is the new pin-up tennis queen.

Karol had played in London before and has been to the Nationals at Forest Hills but her game was lost in the shuffle—until she wore the short skirt that cost $120. It was embroidered with gold tennis racquets. It was an eye-catcher.

English critics said her creation detracted from her game, even before she lost to Mexico's Miss Rosa Reyes, 18, in the semi-finals.

Now the glamorous Miss Fageros is cutting a pretty figure as she makes the United States summer tour in white shorts that bare her well-proportioned sun-tanned legs.

Eighty-ranked among women players by the United States Lawn Tennis Assn., Miss Fageros could be the tonic needed to draw some fans to Forest Hills during the Nationals Aug. 30-Sept. 8.

In or out of lacy skirts she is an eye-fel. She has many natural endowments, such as golden blonde hair and pretty elongated legs that match feminine features seldom seen in sports.

Her tennis game? Oh, yes, it too, has come a long way. One of her major upsets was a victory over Doris Hart, now a pro, in Puerto Rico in 1956. In 1955 she was ranked 15th and her two previous women's rankings were at No. 18. When the rankings come out in December it wouldn't be surprising to see her among the top five players.

She has been playing tennis since she was 11 and soon plans to move to Los Angeles "to learn more about tennis."

Question: With a runner on first base, the umpire hands the catcher a new ball. The pitcher isn't looking when the catcher throws the new ball to him and it goes on into center field. The runner moved to second base. Is this legal?—Walter Reid.

Answer: No. Play does not resume until the pitcher steps on the rubber with the ball.

Q. A foul ball on the third strike is missed by the catcher and lodges in the umpire's mask. What about it?—Caswell Stark.

A. The ball is dead. The count on the batter continues.

Q. In softball, the batter steps out of the batter's box in an attempt to hit a pitched ball. He misses it. Is there a penalty?—Leslie McCarter.

A. No. The ball must be batted in order to impose the penalty.

Stallions Lead As Beck Stars

With Jimmy Beck waving a potent farewell bat, the Stallions took over sole possession of first place in the Pony Baseball League by outlasting the Thorobreds in a 15-9 slugfest yesterday at Stitches Field.

Beck, regular third baseman of the Stallions for three seasons, leaving his final game before he plays Monday to join the Navy, led the 13-hit attack with a double and single in two trips. Ansel Shircliffe blasted a triple and Gulbranson banged a two-bagger. During his three years in the league, Beck batted .516, collecting 16 hits in 31 times at bat.

Douglas "Ducky" Page registered his fourth win against one loss for the Stallions, scattering eight hits while his strikeouts totaled six. He has fanned a total of 51 this season.

Yankelevitz smashed a triple and double and Hammond and Weaver rapped two-baggers for the Thorobreds.

Knights Bow, Hermans Back In City Lead

The Hermans regained first place in the City Softball League yesterday by shutting out Blue Ribbon Bakery, 12-0, at Post Field while the Old Germans were blanking Knights of Columbus in a 6-0 upset at Fort Hill.

The Casey held the lead for only a day this last time in the see-saw battle for the pennant, having moved to the top on Wednesday with a 6-4 win over the Hermans.

Bob Hook allowed the Knights only three hits in yesterday's game to notch his ninth victory of the campaign against three defeats. Junior Brelsford threw a two-hitter for the Hermans to also post his ninth win. He has lost twice.

Paul McGregor of the Old Germans slammed a three-run homer and "Sonny" Method collected two hits. Dick Rank, first sacker of the Old G's, turned in the best defensive play of the game when he dug a throw out of the dirt for the final out with two K. of C. runners aboard. Rickey Harris accounted for two of the Casey's three hits.

Brelsford whiffed a dozen and the only Blue Ribbon players to get hits were Iden and Roy Perrell.

Moreland and Scarpelli had three hits each, Rod Breedlove, Bobby Goss and Brelsford had two apiece for the Hermans. Breedlove belted a homer and double. Hayden Phillips a triple and Moreland a two-bagger.

Americans Near Zone Cup Finals

BOSTON (AP)—The United States Davis Cup team needs only a victory in the double match with Brazil today to clinch the American zone finals, but non-playing Captain Billy Talbot needs some assurance that Sammy Giammalva, of Houston, didn't suffer any ill-effect from his off-beat performance from his struggle with unheralded Armando Vieira yesterday.

Giammalva had to go the limit before he finally subdued the stubborn Brazilian 4-6, 7-5, 6-4, 4-6, 6-4. The old tennis trooper Vic Seixas, of Philadelphia, had an easier time in sweeping 19-year-old Carlos Armandes.

The U.S. will play the winner of the Italy-Belgium European zone finals, which also opened yesterday with the teams breaking even in their opening singles matches.

Baltimore's Improvement Plan Okayed

BALTIMORE (AP)—A special committee has approved a plan to install escalators and additional seat backs in Memorial Stadium here on condition that the Baltimore Orioles and Baltimore Colts agree to share the cost.

As a long-range plan, Mayor D'Alessandro's special committee will also recommend that the arena be enlarged by extending the second tier to the ends of the horseshoe shaped stadium. This part of the program would provide an additional 11,000 seats.

Officials of the Colts and Orioles have endorsed installation of escalators and seat backs as a convenience to fans, but have declined to make a concrete offer to assist in financing the project.

Donald S. Kellett, executive vice president and general manager of the Colts, said his organization will donate but made it clear he thought the Orioles should give more.

Kellett has questioned the value of the additional chair backs to football spectators.

Present plans call for installation of the backs on 6,500 seats to the rear of home plate as the baseball diamond is laid out. This section of the stadium is behind

Cards, Braves Widen Gap In National League Feud

Stan Musial Again Stars With Stick; Yanks Gain

By TONY GALLI
NEW YORK (INS) — The St. Louis Cardinals and Milwaukee Braves have widened the gap to 2½ games in the bitter National League feud thanks to Stan "The Man" and long Gene Conley.

The Cards are still on top, by just .002 percentage points, after nosing out Philadelphia, 5 to 4, in ten innings last night for their seventh straight victory.

But the Braves widened the margin for both teams by stopping third-place Brooklyn, 1 to 0, on Conley's four-hitter.

Following his 4-for-4 performance of the night before which included two home runs, Musial clubbed two doubles and a triple against the Phillies, his second two-bagger driving in the winning run in overtime.

Schmidt Wins Tenth

Bob Miller was on the mound when the end came and Willard Schmidt registered his tenth victory. Stan Lopata rapped his 15th homer in the first inning off Larry Jackson and Joe Cunningham tied it in the bottom half off starter Jack Sanford with another two-run homer. Harry Anderson made it 4-2 with his 11th homer in the fourth and the Phils went scoreless for the next six innings while the Cards pecked away to finally tie it in the seventh.

Six-foot-eight Conley not only pitched four-hit ball at Brooklyn before a record season crowd of 45,840 in Milwaukee but singled in the winning run in the fifth off Johnny Podres. Carl Furillo got three of the four safeties off Conley.

Conley's win was his sixth against five defeats.

Wally Post's three-run homer in the bottom of the ninth inning gave Cincinnati a 9-to-6 decision over New York and Chicago defeated Pittsburgh, 6 to 4, in the only day game.

Yanks Edge Cleveland

Gil McDougald and Mickey Mantle broke up Don Mossi's no-hitter with back-to-back home runs in the seventh inning and the New York Yankees went on to defeat Cleveland, 3 to 2.

Chicago wound up five games behind the American League champs when it lost to Boston, 5 to 4, in ten innings. Baltimore won a doubleheader from Kansas City, 5 to 4, on Bob Boyd's homer in the 13th inning of the opener and Connie Johnson's 10-to-2 verdict in the nightcap. Orioles third-baseman Brooks Robinson was beamed by a Ned Garver pitch and sent to a hospital.

Camilo Pascual pitched a five-hitter and Roy Sievers unloaded his 29th homer as Washington edged Detroit, 2 to 1, to pull out of last place.

Ted Kluszewski, Smokey Burgess and the Giants' Bobby Thomson and Willie Mays (20) all homered before Post ended it with one swish of his bat at Cincinnati. Hersh Freeman won in relief for the Redlegs while the Giants pinned their sixth straight defeat on Al Worthington.

Retires 19 Straight

McDougald's 10th homer of the year and Mantle's 29th tied the score for the Yankees and Harry Simpson's pinch single off reliever Cal McLish in the eighth drove in the winning run.

A Yankee Stadium throng of 36,599 watched Mossi pitch a perfect game until Yogi Berra walked with one down in the fifth. He retired the minimum of 19 batters before McDougald's first hit in the seventh.

The defeat was Mossi's seventh in 14 decisions. Tom Sturdivant pitched a seven-hitter and struck out seven before Bob Grim relieved in the ninth to preserve Sturdy's ninth win.

Ted Williams protected his lead in the AL homer derby by smashing his 30th with two men on in the fifth inning against Chicago starter Jim Wilson. He also upped his league-leading batting average by a point to .383.

The White Sox tied it with two runs in the ninth and Boston won in overtime on singles by Frank Malzone, Gene Stephens and Jackie Jensen off Bill Fischer. George Susce was the winner.

Sievers First In RBI With Last-Placers

By International News Service

Roy Sievers is the people's choice in the Nation's Capital. The 30-year-old slugging outfielder is a daily attraction in a park where the attendance has been as poor this season as Washington's standing in the American League.

For with two months remaining, Sievers already has equalled the Senators' club record of 29 home runs which he himself set last year.

The 6-foot-1 rookie of the year in 1949 tied the mark last night with a second-inning homer which helped beat Detroit and also pulled the Nats out of last place.

The 29th homer equalled Mickey Mantle's output for the Yankees and paced the league in that department until Ted Williams hit his 30th in the fifth inning of Boston's game.

But while wallowing Ted is leading the homer derby, Sievers is leading the league with 78 runs batted in—a major distinction with a team that is last in team batting.

Sievers' baseball days almost ended six years ago when he suffered a shoulder separation while making a diving catch at San Antonio. At training with the Browns again in 1952, he reinjured the shoulder, underwent an operation and was out most of the year.

When Baltimore got the Browns' franchise in 1953, Sievers was traded to the Senators for Gil Coan, who is no longer active.

Eagles Looking For Quarterback

HERSHEY, Pa. — The Philadelphia Eagles, facing a long, hard climb from their cellar position in the Eastern Division of the National Football League, opened drills today for the 1957 season.

The Eagles must find a first string quarterback to replace veterans Bobby Thomson and Adrian Burk, both of whom retired. The top contenders, Sonny Jurgensen of Duke and Jimmy Harris of Oklahoma won't report until after participating in the College All-Star game at Chicago next month.

Back with the Birds this year are fullback Neil Worden and lineman Menkil Mavrides, both of whom saw action in one NFL campaign before entering the service.

The Eagles also have in camp for a tryout offensive back Don (Rusty) Miller, formerly with the Chicago Bears.

The Eagles, in their second year under head coach Hugh Devore will play their first pre-season exhibition against the Baltimore Colts at Hershey Stadium Aug. 17.

Ed Wynn Almost Missed Role In "Playhouse 90"

By DICK KLEINER
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK — Now that Ed Wynn's second career, as dramatic actor, is completely successful, a story can be told about his first public appearance in that role. This was on Playhouse 90's "Requiem for a Heavyweight."

When Wynn was signed, the author of the play, Rod Sterling, objected. He felt Wynn was too old, his reflexes too slow. Producer Martin Manulis held out for Ed. A compromise was reached. Wynn got the part, but another actor—Ned Glass—was hired, too. Glass learned the lines, watched each rehearsal. Up to the last minute, if Wynn had faltered, Glass would have gone on. But Ed Wynn didn't falter; in fact, his performance was a triumph.

There are a few things that are certain about summer. There will be some hot weather, an attack by Japanese beetles and Mike Stokely's "Pantomime Quiz" will return.

MIKE STOKELY: But what happens in the winter?

"I'm getting used to the gags about me being a summer replacement," Stokely says. "Actually, they do me good—keep the name mentioned."

The problem isn't so much summer. What Stokely does in the summer is a matter of public record. But what happens in the winter? Is Stokely a hibernator?

"There've been a few winters," he says, "when my show has gone all through. Not in the last few years, though. But I keep working—figuring out new formats, trying to sell the show 52 weeks a year, things like that."

This summer, like last, "Pantomime Quiz" is substituting for Edward R. Murrow's "Person to Person" over CBS-TV. And, as always, it gets good ratings, good reviews and seems to please public and sponsor alike. Why can't he get a permanent spot?

"I've often asked myself that same question," Mike says. "I don't know the answer. I always have possibilities, but they never seem to work out. Right now, for instance, there are three possibilities—a film deal, a five-afternoon-a-week show in which four regulars would be challenged by varying teams from the audience and a nighttime network spot. I hope one of them works out."

If it doesn't, Mike Stokely will continue to work summers. Actually, he can make enough in the summer to support himself all year around. But the only trouble is he never knows, for certain, that he'll be on in the summer until sometime in the spring.

"If I knew for sure," he says, "that I'd be on every summer, I could have the nicest life imaginable. Just work 10 weeks a year—what could be sweeter?"

John Van Doren, now on the "High-Low" panel, says he never once watched "Twenty-One" all the way through while his brother, Charles, was competing for the large loot.

"I was so much of a coward about it," John says. "I didn't have the nerve to watch. But I'd call him on the phone afterwards and find out what happened."

The public is very fussy about its murders. That's the word from Joan Harrison, associate producer with Alfred Hitchcock on NBC-TV's coming "Suspicion" series.

Miss Harrison says there are two definite taboos, caused not by any code but just by the question of the public's likes and dislikes. For one thing, children cannot be villains. (What about "The Bad Seed"?) And, for another, nothing concerned with the laying out of bodies for burial is tolerated by the public.

The first of these taboos caused a change in plans for "Suspicion," which is taking its stories from the top mysteries of literature. They wanted to use a Ray Bradbury story, in which a baby caused the death of both parents. But they decided against it.

What does the public like most? Miss Harrison says the sure-fire format is one in which a charming criminal outwits the police.

Who's Doing What? George Gobel: Planning his full hour show with Eddie Fisher for next season, he's toying with the idea of using his real wife, Alice, in some of them. Peter Donald: He's chairman of "Save the Pun Week," a promotion of the Society for the Revival and Preservation of the Pun As a Form of Humor. Donald must be a-raid puns will peter out. Bob Shad: The boss of Mercury Records says summer TV is a boon to the recording industry—"With all that dull canned stuff they're doing out, people are bound to switch from TV to records."

Arthur Murray: He's developing a new dance called "Posin'" based on an idea which came to him while watching people play charades. He thinks it could be a hit novelty, like the old Lambeth Walk. He may introduce it on his TV show

What does the public like most? Miss Harrison says the sure-fire format is one in which a charming criminal outwits the police.

Who's Doing What? George Gobel: Planning his full hour show with Eddie Fisher for next season, he's toying with the idea of using his real wife, Alice, in some of them. Peter Donald: He's chairman of "Save the Pun Week," a promotion of the Society for the Revival and Preservation of the Pun As a Form of Humor. Donald must be a-raid puns will peter out. Bob Shad: The boss of Mercury Records says summer TV is a boon to the recording industry—"With all that dull canned stuff they're doing out, people are bound to switch from TV to records."

Arthur Murray: He's developing a new dance called "Posin'" based on an idea which came to him while watching people play charades. He thinks it could be a hit novelty, like the old Lambeth Walk. He may introduce it on his TV show other, nothing concerned with the laying out of bodies for burial is tolerated by the public.

Martha Hyer Takes Whirl At Society

PARIS (INS) — Actress Martha Hyer, a gal who's a dead ringer for Grace Kelly, confessed today if she'd seen Prince Rainier first, "I'd have to put the double whammy on him!"

"But only because I think he's a wonderful, charming person," Martha added, "not because he's a prince."

Martha, who just finished a co-starring role with Bob Hope in a gay extravaganza called "Paris Holiday," deplored the way American girls are "title-searching" in Europe these days.

"With Grace Kelly and Prince Rainier it was different," she said. "That was a true love match and I think it's the greatest thing since popcorn."

"But with most girls, it's a case of 'title, title, who's got the title?' with no thought of whether or not the poor man has a heart, a mind, or buck teeth."

The blonde actress, a home-spun girl from Dallas, Tex., despite her cool Grace Kellyish appearance, got into the swim of things when she hit Europe recently by jumping right into the middle of the so-called "international set."

"All my life I'd heard about these people," she said. "Now I've had a chance to view them first hand and they're quite something, believe me!"

Martha, now enroute to Hollywood, crashed the caviar and champagne crowd by way of Polish Prince Jean Poniatowski and his brother Albert, who took a fancy to the pretty American movie actress.

As a consequence she has week-ended on the Riviera, attended the most exclusive parties and experienced the sweet smell of social success.

"It was a revelation to me," she declared, "to listen to their conversation. All they talk about is parties, parties, parties and what's happening at Maxime's. It's their whole life. Their greatest tragedy is for count so-and-so to have a party and leave them off the guest list. They seldom, if ever, recover from such a blow."

"All that hand-kissing and bowing at the waist is for the birds," she declared. "You know something? I prefer the folks back home and as for a title — plain Mrs. something or other would suit me fine!"

HONOLULU (INS) — Territorial Sen. William H. Hill says he is getting pessimistic about Hawaii's chance for statehood.

"It seems statehood is always around the corner, then there is another corner, and there are so many that they are soon rounded off and now we're going in circles," he told an audience.

Helen Hayes Plans Play Next Season NEW YORK (AP) — Helen Hayes will probably return to Broadway next season, but so far hasn't made up her mind which of two scripts she prefers.

The veteran star is going to Europe this summer to confer with Anita Loos on "Cock-a-Doodle-Do," a play about a colorful figure in the international set, the late Lady Mendil. Miss Hayes' husband, Charles MacArthur, was at work on the play when he died last year.

Miss Hayes is also considering Jean Anouilh's "Time Remembered."

South has a book two-no-trump opening. North's three-club response is Stayman and the final contract of six spades is normal. So normal in fact that almost every pair in an Indianapolis duplicate reached that contract, but only young Chuck Stimming managed to make it.

The king of clubs was opened. Everyone took the ace, drew trumps, ruffed out diamonds and clubs, led a low heart from dummy and ducked. This play failed in all instances because East held the queen-jack-ten-nine of hearts. That is everyone but Chuck. He worked out a play to guard against that exact combination. Chuck's play started with the same two rounds of trumps. He continued by playing three rounds of diamonds and trumping his nine of clubs in dummy. Now Chuck laid down his ace and king of hearts and got the same bad break that everyone else did. However, this bad break did not hurt him. He led the jack of clubs and discarded one of dummy's hearts. West was in with the queen and had to lead a club or a diamond; it made no difference. Chuck discarded dummy's last heart and ruffed in his own hand. This play allowed him to get rid of two heart losers in return for one club loser and gave him his contract and a top score.

Unseen Critic Uses Ballot For Message
PIKEVILLE, Ky. (P)—When tabulators were recording ballots cast in the primary election, they came across one with this inscription: "All men are evil. None good. No not one."
The voter failed to cast a ballot for a single candidate.

Your Horoscope

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.
For Sunday, Aug. 4, 1957
MARCH 21 to APRIL 20 (Aries)—Concentrate on essentials, including religious obligations. In your time for relaxation, choose it wisely, and get the benefit of mental as well as physical rest. Taboo gossip.
APRIL 21 to MAY 21 (Taurus)—Be meticulous, but not fussy. You are guided by your words, actions, so aim to put your best foot forward now and you'll widen your circle of friends. Increase your areas of interest.
MAY 22 to JUNE 21 (Gemini)—Personal and heart interests favored. Don't inject personalities into your conversation.
JUNE 22 to JULY 23 (Cancer)—Make use of all honest means to achieve your goals. Pray that you choose the right path on which to expend your efforts. Share your happiness with others and yours will double.
JULY 24 to AUGUST 23 (Leo)—Being considerate generally leads to like treatment from others. There are some who take advantage of kindness; give them no time. Enjoy a hobby, improve a talent, visit friends.
AUGUST 24 to SEPTEMBER 23 (Virgo)—Plan for needed rest, pleasant diversion from routine, avoid fatigue. Spread cheer; a grand day for wholesome fun, good deeds, visiting the sick, indulging a hobby.
SEPTEMBER 24 to OCTOBER 23 (Libra)—Your talents stimulated now. Don't over-anticipate.
OCTOBER 24 to NOVEMBER 22 (Scorpio)—The way you begin your day will be important; also your ability to shrug off annoyances. Be smart, but humble, too.
NOVEMBER 23 to DECEMBER 21 (Sagittarius)—To be well thought of is fine. If you are so thought of by truly principled people. Be careful in associations now. And, like Scorpio, emphasize humility.
DECEMBER 22 to JANUARY 20 (Capricorn)—Plan so that your time won't be so crowded as to tire you. If possible, enjoy a relaxing, good book, swimming, gardening, a walk. Relieve tension, laugh, pray.
JANUARY 21 to FEBRUARY 19 (Aquarius)—With courage, incentive, good will and the firm opinion that you CAN go forward, this day should surely please.
FEBRUARY 20 to MARCH 20 (Pisces)—Important: a readiness to take on improved methods, willingness to rest when you should and a cheerful disposition.
YOU BORN TODAY are a combination of vigor and enthusiasm but you may indulge in pessimism if opposed or criticized. You have too many wonderful assets to let such a fault hold you back. People naturally like you. You should be able to rise quickly in any position if you will forget slight, overlook petty annoyances. Don't be influenced just through the heart. Let your bright mind guide you. You may be selfish about your opinions but rarely is Leo small with money or other things. Avoid extremes. Birthdate of Percy B. Shelley, poet. Vainly Pater, Eng. man of letters. (King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Youth Burned To Death In Crash

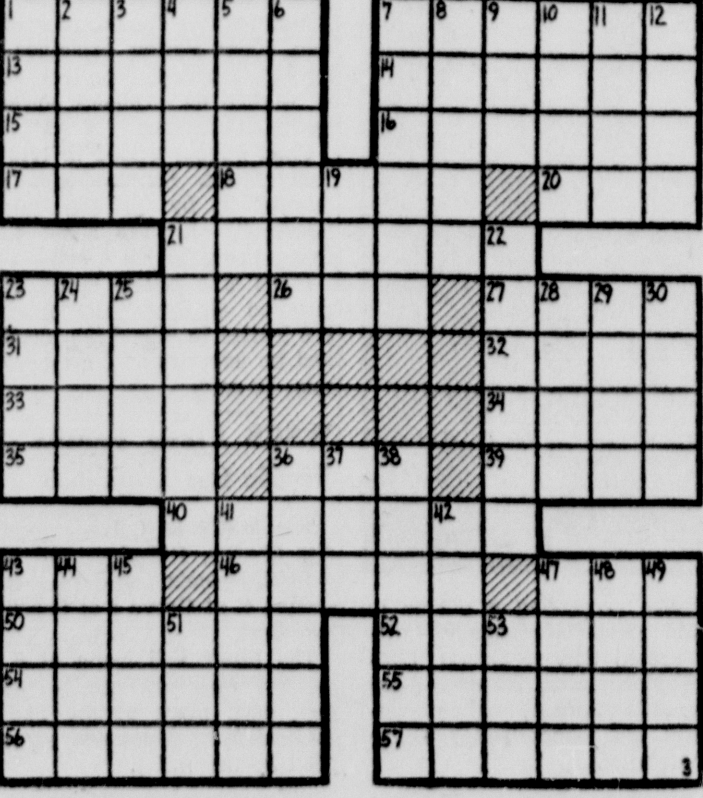

WAYNESBORO, Pa. (P)—An 18-year-old Pennsylvania boy was burned to death and two men critically injured yesterday when a truck crashed and burned.
The dead youth was identified as Eugene Wagaman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross H. Wagaman, South Mountain, Pa.
The two men, thrown clear of the cab, were taken to Waynesboro Hospital with third degree burns. They were Melvin Gunels, 23, Boaz, Ala., and Armp Cpl Paul L. Thomas, 28, Charming, Pa.
Police said they thought Gunels was the driver of the truck, owned by Colonial Refrigerated Transportation Co., Inc., Birmingham, Ala. The vehicle struck a telephone pole and a guard rail before plunging down an eight-foot embankment.

German Language Staging Comeback

NEW ULM, Minn. (P)—The German language is staging a comeback in New Ulm, founded by immigrants from Ulm, Germany, in 1854.
A teacher has been hired to teach a course in German at New Ulm High School next year. The language has been "dead" in the schools for many years, although many of the older residents still speak German and one church still has a German service.

Steer Proves Toughness Before Slaughterhouse

TUSCOLA, Ill. (P)—Somebody is going to bite into a very tough steak this fall.
Deputy Sheriff Gene Miller was enroute to investigate a complaint when he saw a 700-pound black steer struck broadside by a motorist. The force of the impact tossed the steer into the air and over the car.
Miller stopped to drag the animal off the highway. When he nudged it with his foot the steer jumped to its feet, glared balefully at Miller and raced off to join his 12 companions along the road.

Fishing Available To College Students

CHICAGO (P)—Civil engineering students now can combine going to college with fishing.
That's what 40 Illinois Institute of Technology students will do at Camp Armour, 400 miles north of Chicago on Trout Lake, Wis. The site is Illinois Tech's summer surveying camp.
Field practice is done in a Wisconsin forest preserve. Afterwards, there's swimming, boating, fishing, volleyball, horse-shoes and other summer outdoor sports.

Fort Ashby Area Man Auto Victim

Earnest Creed Riggelman, 63, of near Fort Ashby, died this morning in Potomac Valley Hospital. Keyser, of injuries suffered in an early morning accident Sunday, July 21, near Keyser.

He is the second victim of the one-car accident, which took place on U. S. Route 220.

W. E. McDonald Victim Of Gun Wound

William E. McDonald, former city councilman, was found dead of a rifle wound shortly before 1 p. m. today in the garage of his home at 1 Boone Street.

Investigating the death was Det. Thomas J. See, Officers Charles Thompson, Carl Stouffer and Richard Lashley.

Mr. McDonald, who operated an insurance business in the Liberty Trust Company, was a former banker and real estate operator.

Mr. McDonald, about 75, served on the City Council.

Merger Plan For AFL-CIO Here Adopted

4,100 Workers To Come Under Western Maryland Combine

Agreement on major points in the merger of American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Union locals into the Western Maryland Labor Council, AFL-CIO, was reached last night.

Merger delegates of the Allegheny Trades Council and the Western Maryland Industrial Union Council met at the Allegheny Labor Temple and agreed on major portions of the program which will be submitted to their organizations soon.

The committees will meet next Thursday at 8 p. m. in the Labor Temple to complete the merger plan and to elect officers for the new area labor council.

Meeting In September

The actual merger of the former AFL and CIO Councils, however, will be delayed until after the merger convention of the Maryland State and District of Columbia AFL-CIO.

Labor officials this week were notified the merger convention will open September 6 at 9:30 a. m. in the Statler Hotel, Washington.

Officials of the Maryland State and District of Columbia Federation of Labor were told delegates will be the same as at the recent state convention, which recessed in June after approving merger plans.

The merger proposal worked out last night calls for the Allegheny Trades Council and the Western Maryland Industrial Union Council to join in a new unit to be called the Western Maryland Labor Council, AFL-CIO.

The area body will have jurisdiction over Allegheny and Garrett counties.

Equally Divided

All locals affiliated with either council will automatically become members of the new merged council which would automatically have a membership of about 4,100, almost equally divided between craft and industrial unions.

Officers of the new council will include a president from a former AFL union, a vice president from the CIO, recording secretary, AFL, and secretary - treasurer from the CIO.

The sergeant-at-arms and trustees will be elected at large and the AFL and CIO share equally in the eight-member executive board.

The merger committee recommended that the new council have a per capita tax of two cents a month based on membership dues paid to international unions, with an affiliation fee of $5 for new units and dues of $10 a year for subordinate organizations.

Representation to the area council would be by two delegates for the first 100 members, an additional delegate for each 100 or major fraction up to 400, and one for each additional 400 or major fraction.

Formal details of the merger will be submitted by the merger committees at meetings of the AFL and CIO councils here after next week's meeting.

C. E. Stutzman, state AFL vice president, presided at the meeting, and the AFL-CIO's Region 4 was represented by T. D. duCunzio, Richmond, Va.

The AFL merger committee included Stutzman, F. Patrick Alender, president, and David L. Miller.

Representing the industrial union council were C. D. McIntyre, president; Ralph C. Beard, Stanley Zorick, Joseph Burke, Harold Riggelman and Earl D. Sills.

The details of the merger plan were worked out harmoniously and generally followed the plan which is up for adoption on the state level next month.

The AFL Trades Council represents about 21 craft unions, and the Industrial Council six CIO locals of this area.

Crafts Will Meet

The Building and Construction Trades Council will meet Tuesday at 8 p. m. in the Allegheny Labor Temple.

Riggelman and Welsh were passengers in an automobile operated by Howard W. Gardner, 21, of Antioch. Gardner was indicted by the July grand jury of Mineral County Circuit Court, with his case being passed to the October term of court.

According to West Virginia State Trooper Charles Oliver, who investigated, Gardner was driving towards Burlington on Route 220 when a tire blew out and he lost control of the vehicle. The car left the highway and turned over, Gardner told Trooper Oliver.

Riggelman was admitted to the hospital with shock, a fractured skull, several lacerations of the head, internal injuries and abrasions and contusions. He remained in critical condition for about a week, and seemed to be improving before suffering a relapse within the past day.

A native of Mineral County, he was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James W. Riggelman. His wife, Mrs. Cora C. Riggelman, preceded him in death.

Surviving are three sons, Charles and Franklin Riggelman, both at home, and Woodrow Riggelman, RD 2, Keyser; three daughters, Mrs. Wayne Robinson, McCoole; Mrs. Harry Summers, RD 1, Keyser, and Mrs. Lena Martin, RD 2, Keyser; three brothers, John and Charles Riggelman, both of RD 1, Keyser, and Jesse Riggelman, RD 3, Keyser; a sister, Mrs. Laura Miller, RD 2, Keyser, and ten grandchildren.

The body is at the Rogers Funeral Home, Keyser, where services will be conducted Monday at 2 p. m. by Rev. Lowell R. Rogers. Interment will be in Cabin Run Cemetery.

Cars To Use Wooden Span Across Creek

Cars will start rolling over the temporary Baltimore Street bridge Monday morning as crews move in to demolish the span which has carried traffic over Wills Creek since 1916.

Lt. Raymond R. Johnston, chief of the Traffic Bureau of the Cumberland Police Department, said everything is "ready to go."

Signs have been placed to mark temporary routes to be used by heavy vehicles while the new composite steel girder bridge is being erected by the Hazelwood Construction Company.

Approaches to the bridge were blacktopped yesterday in preparation for the use of the span. It will provide two traffic lanes and a pedestrian walkway.

The Hazelwood firm notified the city yesterday it is moving in equipment Monday morning to demolish the reinforced concrete bridge so it can begin on the foundations of the new bridge. The city passed the word along to utilities which will use the temporary bridge.

Cable splicers will be busy for some time yet in manholes under the approaches to the bridge, completing the installation of telephone lines.

The temporary span was designed by the J. E. Greiner Company, Baltimore, at the request of the Mayor and Council, and built at a cost of about $25,000.

Construction of the temporary and permanent span was incorporated into Section 4 of the Wills Creek phase of the flood control project.

Hauger, Whiting Wills Probated

The wills of Mrs. Nina Louise Hauger, local business woman, and F. Brooke Whiting, attorney and brewery official, who died recently were admitted to probate yesterday in Allegheny County Orphans Court.

Mrs. Hauger, of Hauger's Jewelry Store, left her entire estate to her son, Ward Nathan Hauger Jr., and named him as executor.

Whiting bequeathed his property at 17 Prospect Square to his daughter, Miss Anne Frances Whiting, and 27 Prospect Square to his son, F. Brooke Whiting Jr.

His wife, Mrs. Ruth Whiting, was bequeathed the residue of the estate and was made executrix.

Also admitted to probate was the will of Nellie Burgess Bawden who died June 7 in Baltimore.

Demonstration Held For 4-H Members

Robert Appleman, extension dairyman from the University of Maryland, conducted a fitting and showing demonstration at the Clarence Miller farm near Midland Wednesday for 4-H Dairy Club members.

About 20 club members and parents attended the event. The program was held to aid the club members prepare for the dairy calf exhibition at the Cumberland Fair during the week of August 19.

NEW PLAYGROUND QUEEN—Gene Mason, city recreation director, is shown presenting the trophy emblematic of victory in this year's Playground Queen contest to Doris Kasecamp, representative of the North End Playground.

The contest was held last night in the City Hall and Florence Buzzard of Centre Street Playground placed second, and Linda Lewis, Ridgedale Playground, third. The trio will appear in the parade August 6.

Teamsters Get 4-Cent Pay Increase

About 700 members of Local 453, Teamsters and Chauffeurs Union, Thursday received a four-cent an hour cost of living wage increase.

C. E. Stutzman, this city, business agent, said those effected are the long-haul operators and the over-the-road freight line garage workers who reside in the Bedford - Somerset - Cumberland area.

This increase makes a total of ten cents in cost of living wage boosts received since August 1, last year.

The drivers received three cents an hour last August, three in February and four in August, Stutzman said.

He explained Local 453's contract with the long-haul lines has a clause tying in its cost of living hikes with contracts in the central states.

Increases obtained in the mid-west are automatically followed locally, he added.

He added that all garages connected with the Bedford terminal have voluntarily agreed to grant a wage increase, even though a cost of living hike is not called for in their union contracts.

Pumping Station Undergoing Test

The Evitts Creek pumping station was put through a two-hour test yesterday, according to William H. Buchholz, commissioner of streets and public property.

The station was scheduled to go through a 12-hour test today, and be placed in operation Monday should all go well, Buchholz said.

The unit, he said, picks up sewage from East Side sewer lines and sends it, by a force main, to the main treatment plant.

It is equipped with three pumps on many levels. Each pump cuts in automatically when the sewage rises to its level.

Buchholz said that although the station is completely automatic, he will have men from the staff watching it for a few nights.

Baptists Plan Kindergarten

First Baptist Church will conduct a kindergarten Monday through Friday each week beginning September 9 according to Rev. Archie C. Prevatte, pastor. It will be held from 9:30 to 11:45 a. m. daily at the Bedford Street church under the direction of Mrs. James Haney.

Mrs. Haney is a graduate of Fairmont (W.Va.) College, with a BA in elementary education. She taught four years in Harrison County, West Virginia, and has assisted with kindergarten work since coming to Cumberland.

The school is open to all children four and five years of age, and registrations can be made by contacting Mrs. Haney at PA 2-2081 or Mrs. Walter W. Young, PA 2-2888.

12 Men Pass SRC Highway Training Unit

Program Is First Of Three Years Of In-Service Classes

Certificates have been earned by 12 men who completed the first year of a three-year in-service highway engineering training program conducted at the District 6 office of the State Roads Commission on Braddock Road.

The training is being conducted by the State Roads Commission in cooperation with the University of Maryland's College of Special and Continuation Studies.

Nine of the 12 completing the first year's work and passing the final examinations are SRC employees, while two are in the City of Cumberland's Engineering Department and the other an employee of the George F. Hazelwood Company.

From the SRC were Francis Wayne Clark, National; Joseph Dorsey, LaVale; Joseph F. Footen, Harold D. Linn, Philip J. Stark and Ralph I. Tewell, all of Cumberland; George E. Geary and George B. Jenkins, both of Frostburg, and Charles W. Harvey, Shaft.

From Hazelwood was Ward Murray, and from the City Engineering Department, Charles H. Scarlett and George R. Scarlett.

The first year covered basic subjects, while the second or intermediate course will be survey and planning, and the last year, or advanced, road design.

The class began in October with 30 students and two weekly sessions, 7:30 to 10:30 p. m. The spring semester called for eight weeks of advanced algebra and trigonometry.

The course was given under the direction of Paul A. Kemper, assistant District 6 engineer for the SRC. Instructor in mathematics was Leslie C. Amtower, of the Mt. Savage Hill High School faculty.

In April a series of 14 lectures started, two each week. Topics presented mostly by engineers from the main SRC office in Baltimore included:

History of highways, administration and finance, essentials of highway planning and traffic, basic surveying, design and plans, rigid pavement, flexible pavement, drainage, soils, right-of-way, contracts, specifications and documents, highway construction, bridge construction, and maintenance.

Robert O. Bonnell, chairman of the State Roads Commission, noted on a recent visit to Cumberland that all states are facing a serious shortage of highway engineers.

The program, he said, will become more acute as federal highway system work gets underway. He said one of the ways Maryland is attempting to overcome this problem is by this in-service training.

District Man Gets New Job

Edward J. Shuck, Lonaconing, has been appointed counselor in Washington County for the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation for the State Department of Education.

Shuck is spending a period of time working with John W. Coburn, counselor for the division for Allegheny and Garrett counties to become oriented in this line of work.

For the past three years, Shuck has been a teacher in Accident Elementary School. He is a graduate of Frostburg State Teachers College and prior to that was a ten-year employee of Amcelle Plant of Celanese Corporation.

Shuck is a graduate of the class of 1941 of Barton High School. At Hagerstown he will replace Howard Dean who goes to Westminster as counselor.

Presented Award

Robert R. Golden, who operates the weather station at Constitution Park, has been presented a service award by the U. S. Weather Bureau on his completion of ten years as an observer for the bureau. Golden also furnishes weather reports to the River Services Section of the Department of Commerce.

COUNSELOR—Edward J. Shuck, Lonaconing, has been appointed counselor in Washington County for the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation for the State Department of Education.

Man Receives Three Months On Violations

A 27-year-old man convicted last fall on a charge of bigamy in Allegany County Circuit Court today was sentenced to three months in the County Jail when he was found guilty of violating his parole.

Judge Morgan C. Harris gave William Samuel Pyles the three-month term after hearing evidence presented by James E. Getty, assistant state's attorney, and Edwin R. Lilya, county investigator.

Getty said Pyles, contrary to his probation from a two-year term in the House of Correction, on the bigamy conviction, bought an auto without having an operator's license.

He also permitted an unlicensed person to drive his car, and was charged with leaving the scene of an accident.

Getty also told Judge Harris that Pyles had been drinking intoxicants since October 26 when the stipulations of the parole were listed in Circuit Court.

The final count against him was for the theft of money from a nephew at Fort Ashby, the assistant state's attorney said.

Army Troupe Will Present Show Aug. 10

An outdoor musical show by the Second Army Showmobile will be offered residents of this section Saturday, August 10, at 8 p. m. in the amphitheatre at Constitution Park.

The troupe that will present "Mostly Music," a revue, is the same one that presented a show here in the spring and drew the acclaim of those who attended.

The showmobile's summer presentation is designed to entertain troops in the field and in military community locations within the Second Army area.

However, its appearances in Cumberland Saturday and on Friday, August 9, in Frostburg, are under the sponsorship of the nine Army Reserve units in Allegheny County.

The special services Section of the Second Army has gathered together a group of outstanding entertainers who made singing and music their vocation in civilian life.

Included in the group are the Texans, a dance trio featured on the Ed Sullivan TV show; and Pic, Steve Kopy, Fort Myer, Va., accordionist, who has appeared on the Lawrence Welk Show.

Others include several stars who won world-wide All-Army awards in competition with other entertainers in May at Fort Monmouth, N. J.

"Mostly Music" is built around songs, dances, and musical selections from well-known shows and features highlights from three of Broadway's brightest hits, "Oklahoma," "Most Happy Fella," and "Damm Yankees."

Flying Pioneers Meet Here Tonight

A meeting of Maryland Sump 13 of the OX5 Club of America will be held today at the Algonquin Hotel, beginning with a dinner at 6 p. m., according to Fire Chief Virgil A. Parker, director for Allegheny and Garrett counties in the state organization.

Membership in the organization, Chief Parker explained, is limited to persons who flew, rode or worked on airplanes powered by the OX5 engine.

Chief Parker soloed in 1918 at Kelly Field, San Antonio, and learned to fly in the famed "Jenny." He has about 4,000 flying hours to his credit.

Pilots who soloed in an OX5-powered airplane prior to 1940 are invited to attend the meeting and be interviewed for membership, he said.

WSCS Plans Family Picnic On August 6

The WSCS of Calvary Methodist Church, Ridgely, will hold a family picnic supper Tuesday, August 6, at Grove 1 of Constitution Park.

The affair will begin at 6 p. m. and members are to bring their own place setting and a covered dish. Meat will be supplied by the WSCS.

More Paving Work Needed In Creek Bed

"Soft" Spots Make Changes In Plans For Flood Control

The finding of a "soft" bed in Wills Creek between Valley Street and the B&O Viaduct and at another point near Market Street will necessitate more paving in the channel work of the Cumberland-Ridgely flood protection project.

Originally, only phase one, from the Narrows to the Zimmerman Machine Shop, was to have a paved creek bottom.

From there to the confluence of the Potomac River the rock bed of the creek was to be smoothed off at an appropriate grade and utilized instead of concrete.

Work As Scheduled

The work went on as planned by the Corps of Army Engineers who had figured on subsurface exploration drilling reports made of the creek bed and its rock strata.

The first phase was paved and the second phase from Zimmerman's to just below Valley Street Bridge was as scheduled, the bed in the creek was good solid rock.

But just below the bridge, as the E. J. Albrecht Company dug into the North Mechanic Street side of the creek for footers for the flood wall, it found the bottom was not as figured.

There was insufficient rock and what remained was not of the type that was first believed to be there.

So as a result the nearly 700 feet of the channel will be paved from the bridge to the viaduct.

To Protect Piers

The original plans called for about 200 feet to be paved in the vicinity of the viaduct.

The Albrecht firm is going ahead with this concrete work which is designed to protect the viaduct piers and also to prevent damage to the creek bottom by the turbulence caused by flood waters at this point.

It was also learned that in the vicinity of the Queen City Brewery Company another fault has been found in the bed, a dip in the rock strata of about 30 feet.

Corps of Army Engineers officials are in Cumberland this week to do further drilling at this section to determine if there must be a change in plans.

The contractor has proceeded without delay in his flood work, except for the slowdown caused by the cement strike. The paving will be an addition to his present contract, which apparently will be revised.

Lie Detector Use Planned In Robbery

The investigation into the robbery of the F. G. Fox and Sons Hardware Store in Friendsville is being continued by state and county authorities, with the latest report being that a lie detector is expected to be used in checking testimony from persons who have already been questioned in the case.

No one is being held, nor have any charges been preferred, authorities stressed. They added the lie detector is wanted to help clarify statements that apparently conflict.

Thieves entered the Friendsville store sometime over the weekend and made off with $37,510. The robbery was not discovered until the store was opened for business Monday morning. Part of the loot included an undetermined amount of cash. The major portion of the loss was in bonds, some of which were not negotiable.

Authorities at first assumed that the job was done by professionals since the outer door of the safe was opened by use of the dial. This was either wiped clean, or the safe crackers used gloves, since there were no fingerprints, authorities pointed out. The inner door of the safe was punched out.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation is assisting in the investigation.

State Police Promotes Four

Three Cumberland men and the officer formerly stationed at Hancock have received promotions in the Maryland State Police.

Advanced to troopers first class are William D. Fossett, Conowingo; Grover N. Sensabaugh, Randallstown, and Robert T. Storer, Frederick.

Promoted to sergeant is Harold L. Basore, formerly stationed at Hancock, who is at Frederick barracks.

Suspect Returned For Questioning

Roy E. Dayton, 29, of Westernport, who was arrested July 22 in Denver on a state warrant charging him with breaking and entering a Barton service station, has been returned here by Sheriff Edward R. Muir.

Dayton, who is in the county jail, will be questioned Monday in the Barton incident and several other breaking and entering in the Frostburg area.

COMPILE SAFETY RECORD—Cafeteria employees at the Amcelle plant of the Celanese Corporation of America completed eight consecutive years' work on June 30 without a lost-time accident. In recognition of this effort, William Nemeroff, regional supervisor of Harding-Williams Eastern Corporation, is
